

AATJ & Japan Foundation Los Angeles Collaborative Program

GLOBAL COMPETENCY & JAPANESE LANGUAGE EDUCATION

FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 8 (5:00PM-7:00 PM)
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9 (9:00AM-5:0PM)

AATJ and JFLA are pleased to sponsor this workshop to promote Japanese Language and Culture Education by providing information about current advocacy initiatives and core practices to maximize students' performance.

Join also a special talk by Mr. Yoshihisa Nagatani, President of Toyota Motor Manufacturing, on Friday evening to explore ways to promote global competency in the curriculum.

Friday, September 8, 5:00 p.m-7:00 p.m. / Followed by Reception at Wyndham Garden near La Cantera

"Global Competence: Business and Japanese Language Education" (This talk is in Japanese.)
Yoshihisa Nagatani [President of Toyota Motor Manufacturing, Texas, Inc.]

Saturday, September 9, University of Texas San Antonio

MH(Mckinney Humanities) Building; room 3.01.28

A.M. Session (9:00-12:30)

"Advocacy for Japanese Language Education"

Erin Whelchel (Special Projects Coordinator of ACFTL)

Hideki Hara (Director of Japan Foundation Los Angeles)

P.M. Session (1:30-5:00)

"21st Century skills and Core Practices for Japanese Language Learning"

Yoshiko Saito-Abbott (President of AATJ) and Motoko Tabuse (Immediate Past President of AATJ)

Fee: Free (Lunch will be provided)

Registration: Please complete the registration form from the link below by August 23

Registration: <https://goo.gl/5zbdss>

Venue: University of Texas San Antonio (Campus map with driving directions: goo.gl/sJH4CA)

MH (Mckinney Humanities: Room 3.01.28)

Parking Baurei Rd Lot 3; Free shuttle service from Wyndham Garden near La Cantera is also available

Hosted by

Japanese Teachers Association of Texas (JTAT)