Mason Hall is a part of a large building complex, together with Angell Hall, Tisch Hall, and Haven Hall, located on the east side of South State Street between North University Ave. and South University Ave., just north of the University of Michigan Museum of Art. The northeast corner of this building complex is designated as Mason Hall. Please go around to the east side of the building (away from State Street) and use the entrance facing the Diag (the central courtyard) marked on the map as “Enter Here”; there will be signs around the building indicating the correct entrance.

Parking is available at the Maynard Street city parking structure (324 Maynard Street, between Liberty and William Streets), Thayer Street U-M Staff parking structure, Fletcher Street U-M Staff parking structure and the Thompson Street U-M Staff parking structure. Some parking structures may charge an event parking fee ($5) and space in these structures may be limited. Limited metered street parking spaces are also available on nearby city streets.

Public transportation (U-M Blue bus shuttle and AATA (city) bus) is available on Sundays on a limited basis. Some routes are not serviced at all, and others do not run as frequently.
