Synergy of synchronous and asynchronous learning environments: A new hybrid-model with the power of "un-" & "re-" July , 2021

Presenter: Dr. Takako Aikawa, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT)

Facilitator: Yoshiko Saito-Abbott, California State University, Monterey Bay
AATJ Professional Development Director

AATJ Membership

Membership registration: <https://www.aatj.org/membership> (January 1 - December 31)

- Quarterly newsletter, semiannual journal
- Member rate for two annual conferences (ACTFL, AAS)
- Professional development programs
- Japanese National Honor Society (high school or college level)
- National Japanese Exam
- Membership in a regional or state Japanese language educators' association
- Teacher Awards
- Special Interest Groups

AATJ Teacher Awards

- Awards are given annually in two categories:
 - K-12 Level Teacher Award
 - Community College/College and University Level Teacher Award
- Nomination Deadline: July 31, 2021
- Eligibility:
 - Candidates must have three years' teaching experience at the level for which they are nominated.
 - Candidates must hold a current membership in AATJ.
 - Nominators may be anyone familiar with the nominee's teaching (e.g., a colleague, administrator, parent, or student).
 - Nominators who are teachers of Japanese (language, literature, culture, etc.) must be current members of AATJ. No current AATJ board member is eligible to receive one of these awards.

JFLA Virtual Event (July 23rd, 2021)

Colorful: A Conversation with Eto Mori and Julie Lythcott-Haims

In collaboration with Counterpoint Press, The Japan Foundation, Los Angeles invites you to listen to internationally-acclaimed author Eto Mori discussing her bestselling book, “Colorful”, which is going to be available in English end of July! She has won numerous major awards in Japan, including the Naoki Prize. Joined by New York Times bestselling author Julie Lythcott-Haims, the authors discuss not just their crafts and writing practices, but also the tragedy of depression and suicide amongst youths.

The book Colorful provides comfort and perspectives of both parents and youths. After a year of quarantine and crises all over the world, such conversations are needed now more than ever. Translation services are provided by award-winning Colorful translator, Jocelyne Allen.

Stage Beyond Borders

The Japan Foundation (JF) has started the project “STAGE BEYOND BORDERS—Selection of Japanese Performances,” which presents outstanding Japanese stage performances online for people throughout the world who are seeking opportunities to enjoy Japanese stage performances amid the spread of COVID-19. The most recent performance is Bunraku and all videos have English subtitles.

The time has arrived for our 2021 survey! We will be conducting our 2021 Japan Foundation Institutional Survey and would like to receive information about new institutions and updated contact information. We have been contacting Japanese teachers associations but if there's any questions/updates, please contact lena_kelly@jflalc.org!

Advocacy Goods

We have updated our advocacy goods list with masks from The Japan Foundation, New York & CGP's Mask Up 2020 contest! The winners of the contest had their designs printed on the face masks and has been donated to various U.S.-Japan related organizations across the U.S.

There are also summer related items such as uchiwa (hand fans) and our original bandana has been quite popular as well! Please email lena_kelly@jflalc.org if interested.

Protocols

- Please mute your mic.
- Please turn off your camera.
- Please use the Chat Room for questions only.
- Feel free to respond to the question in Chat.
- There will be time for Q&A at the end.
- This session is recorded and will be available at the AATJ Site.
- Please complete the evaluation.

Potential increase in one-on-one interaction time with students in a smaller setting

Potential use of digital tools to see how they can complement F2F instruction.

Why do we need synchronous remote learning?

Synchronous
learning

What works better in synchronous remote instruction?

- Office hours can be done more effectively remotely; more flexibility and availability.
- Zoom's share screen enables us to provide more individualized writing feedback.
- Students' attendance is better in remote settings.
- Zoom recording allows students to review materials when needed.
- Educational applications (Kahoot!, Flipgrid, Google Jamboard, Padlet, etc.) can be used in the remote setting.

What works better in synchronous remote instruction?

- Pair work can be done more easily through Breakout Room.
- Students can see themselves speaking (more self-awareness).
- The exposure to LMS, Zoom, and other types of educational applications allowed us to explore different types of assignments and assessments.
- Video/audio recording assignments (Flipgrid; Canvas media submission; etc.) allow students to pay more attention to their pronunciation.

etc.

Activities	Remote
Office hours	More flexible
Student attendance	better
Review class materials	Possible whenever needed
Feedback	Easier and more individualized through Zoom's share screen
Educational applications	More easily adopted
Assessments and quizzes	Different kinds of assessments and quizzes
etc.

What works better in F2F environments?

What doesn't work in remote environments?

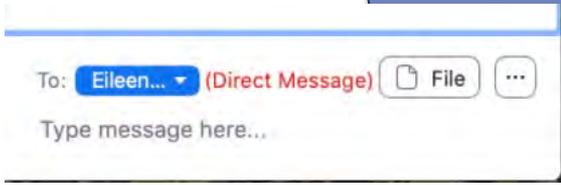

Lack of accidental meetings (偶然的な出会い)

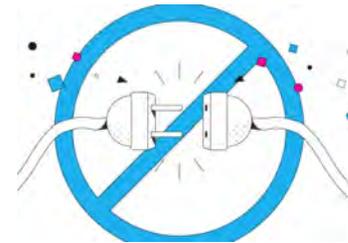

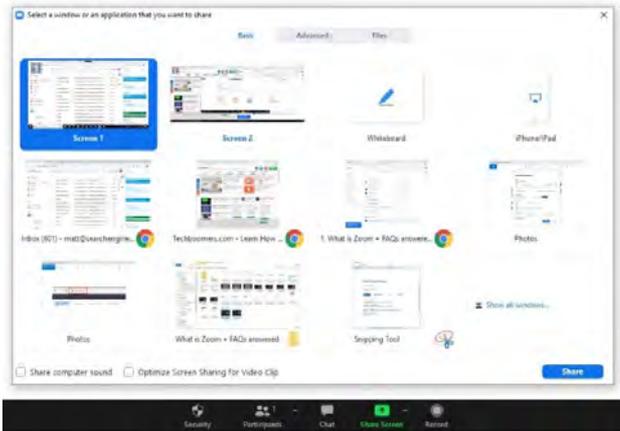

Lack of the sense of community

Individuals are inside their own capsule, and there is little freedom to communicate with each other accidentally and spontaneously. This leads to the lack of the sense of

Less time in class instruction... due to the internet connection and the time loss during a Zoom session (e.g.,
'share screen', 'mute-unmute', etc.)

Body-language/Whole body movement

Checking students hand-writing for beginners (by pencil & paper)

When you look at our current situations carefully....

There are lots of things that work fine (or better) in the remote settings.

What should we teach in F2F?

Zoom versus Face To Face

Things that would work better in the F2F environment involve psychological aspects.

What elements of learning can we defer to the asynchronous modality?

Even before Covid....Under the flipped class environment...

Many teachers have already created videos to teach grammar.

AN INTEGRATED COURSE IN ELEMENTARY JAPANESE

About our site

- ▶ On this page, you'll find easy-to-understand videos for every single sentence pattern you learn in each section of GENKI, a best-selling elementary Japanese textbook series for international students (click here for the GENKI website).
- ▶ Watching videos will help you better understand sentence patterns that are difficult to grasp just by reading the descriptions in the textbook.
- ▶ Since a video is produced for each sentence pattern, you can easily choose the one

Why don't we utilize these available resources?

- We want to teach grammar in our own way.
- Many of the grammar videos on the web do not coincide with grammar items in our textbook(s).
- Currently available grammar videos are often "closed" (=not open to the public).

Record your 'practice' lecture before the class, and deliver it.

No cost

It benefits not only students but also teachers

My future research topics

-What do we want to assess? Why and how?-

- What do we mean by “Reading Comprehension (読解)”?
- What type of Kanji assessment do we need? Do we need to assess Kanji writing to be assessed?
- Can we use technology to support our (subjective) 作文 evaluation?

読解とは何か？

IV. Based on the reading passage, answer the following questions in English. Provide as much detail as possible.

先日、学校に通う電車の中で、田中君が笑顔でお年寄りに席を譲るのを見て a) 驚いた。前はそういうことは絶対にしなかったし、お年寄りをばかにすることもあったのに。

二年前、田中君が柔道部に入った時、僕も誘われたが断った。b) 体力も精神力もない僕は、厳しい練習や上下関係など我慢できないと思った。それに、運動能力の高い田中君と比べられなくなかったのだ。

実際に彼は、最も活躍した選手として奨学金を与えられることになったそうだ。運動せずに色々な種類のビタミンを飲み、着る服の色で健康的なイメージを作ろうとしている自分が c) 少し恥ずかしい。

1. Regarding the underlined part a), what surprised the author. And why?
2. Translate the underlined part b). Do not summarize it.
3. Regarding the underlined part c), why does the author feel this way?

V. Based on the reading passage, answer the following questions in English. Provide as much detail as possible.

島川課長は厳しいことで有名だ。三十歳過ぎで、ユーモアのセンスがなく、a) 会議中にジョークを言うことも笑うことも全然ない。エレベーターで二人だけになった時など、僕はとても緊張する。 ところが昨日の晩、町で課長を見てびっくりした。b) 女性と楽しそうにデートしていたからだ。

c) 相手の顔ははっきり分からなかったが、髪が短く、特徴のある歩き方だった。

d) 実は島川課長に恋人がいると僕が言っても、オフィスでは誰も信じないだろうと思った時、急に思い出した。あの歩き方は、上の階のマーケティング課で働いている絵田さんだ！

1. Who is under discussion?
2. Describe the person in detail, including how the author feels about the person.
3. What happened last night?
4. Translate the underlined part c).

音読と読解の関係

Any correlation between “reading comprehension(読解)” and “read aloud (音読)”?

What type of Kanji assessment do we need?

Do we still keep assessing Kanji writing skills for intermediate ~ advanced students?

Minato: Hiragana, Katakana, & Kanji

With Minato, students are able to self-study hiragana, katakana, and kanji on their own pace. As remembering letters in Japanese is all about repetition, it's important to find various methods for students to retain hiragana, katakana, and kanji.

I have difficulty writing in kanji but learned to read through repetitions, understanding patterns, and self-studying on my own. It's important for students to have additional materials so they could maintain their skills beyond the classroom.

Minato is free to use and there are many ways to learn recognition.

On Minato, learners can self-study letters, test their reading skills, and match the correct letter with images. These various methods can help learners find methods that best suit their needs.

Minato: Japanese culture (Calligraphy)

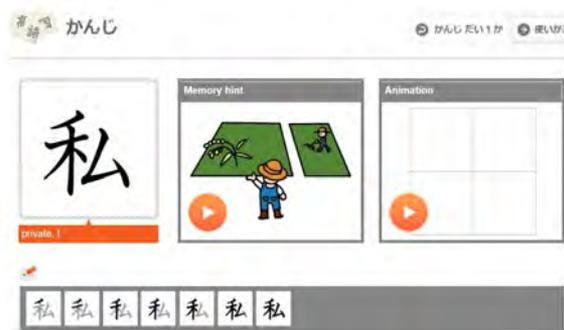

Other than being able to take comprehensive courses like “Marugoto” and practice hiragana, katakana, and kanji, there are cultural classes such as calligraphy to learn through Minato.

Students can learn basic knowledge about calligraphy and how to actually use the brush through short videos. PDF of the sample kanjis are available as well in order to practice as necessary.

Minato Experiences for Calligraphy

Let's watch the video of "STEP3 【Task1】 Experience with the Actual Brush".

For calligraphy, learners will watch informative videos, practice kanji through Marugoto + (<https://a2.marugotoweb.jp/ja/>) and learners can further increase their vocabulary through Marugoto no Kotoba (<https://words.marugotoweb.jp/top.php?lang=en>).

For more e-learning resources, please check here: <https://www.marugoto.org/e-learning/>.
