16:58:27 From Magara Maeda to Everyone:
I started implementing this in my university Japanese program this year. At the beginning/ending of each semester, students will take the free self-assessment to measure their proficiency growth. <https://form.typeform.com/to/ccAD7gYm>

16:59:16 From Magara Maeda to Everyone:
This online self assessment is available for all modes of communication, interpretive-listening/reading, interpersonal, presentational-speaking/writing

17:03:30 From Pamela Delfosse to Everyone:
Many districts pay assessment costs for learners who qualify for free and reduced lunch.

17:05:20 From Tei Jordan to Everyone:
The results won't be released earlier, but the students can have a kind of "preliminary" qualification pending results put into their transcripts

17:05:21 From Yoko Miwa to Everyone:
Oregon == same as CA 11th grade / Junior students can take AP and get Seal of B. as they graduate

17:06:20 From Yoko Miwa to Everyone:
(could be only limited school districts in Oregon/ Beaverton S.D. == YES)

17:07:16 From Pamela Delfosse to Everyone:
Many states are now embedding these proficiency-based can do statements in their state standards.

Seal of Biliteracy を大学生も取れるようにするような動きはあるのでしょうか。高校で Intermediate Mid レベルに届かなくても、大学でそこに達することができる学生も多くいますよね。

17:14:26 From Kazuko Saito to Everyone:

NYSED (K-12) is also transferring to the new standard which is more performance-based. The new standard/curriculum will start from the 7th grade WL curriculum in the year 2023-24. The classroom instruction/assessment will be shifting to close to WRSLL's 5Cs, mainly Communication (Three Modes of Communications) and Culture (Three Ps).
