

Journal of Japanese Language and Literature

Manuscript Evaluation Form for Submissions in Linguistics or Pedagogy

Please include the following information in your report:

1. Title of article:

2. Are you also sending an annotated manuscript by postal mail? (Specify whether you need us to send you stamps to reimburse your postage.)

3. What is your recommendation for publication? Select from:

- Accept as is
- Accept with revision as noted
- Reject but suggest resubmission
- Reject

4. Would you be willing to review the revision or resubmitted version if needed?

5. Confidential remarks to the editor.

6. Comments to be sent to the author(s). Include positive comments about the article as well as specific suggestions for improvement. Japanese Language and Literature would like to give author(s) detailed, constructive feedback for both accepted and rejected articles. Critiques of at least one full page considering the following aspects are thus requested.

- a. Importance of the topic or issue discussed
- b. Review of relevant literature
- c. Research design, procedures, and statistics (if applicable)
- d. Clarity of writing, including tables, figures, and examples
- e. Appropriateness of conclusions drawn/recommendations made
- f. Contribution of the article to the profession