It has been unusually cool and rainy this winter here along the Monterey coast of California, but trees are starting to bud, plum blossoms are blooming, and we can see the signs of spring everywhere. I hope you and your loved ones are doing well. We received many nengajo entries featuring this year’s zodiac sign, the rooster, for the Nengajo contest. Please enjoy viewing the contest winners on the AATJ website. I appreciate Kazumi Yamashita sensei’s many years of outstanding service as our Nengajo Director. Mio Nishimura sensei will serve as the incoming Nengajo Director; I hope many students will submit nengajo next year. We recently closed the registration period for this year’s National Japanese Examination (NJE), which will be administered in March and April. I want to thank everyone for their participation. I hope you consider the NJE as an effective assessment tool for your program on a national level.

AATJ has been advocating the importance of learning language as a member of the Joint National Committee for Languages - National Council for Languages and International Studies (JNCL-NCLIS). Janet Ikeda sensei, who has served as Director of Advocacy for AATJ, has now been elected to the Board of Directors of JNCL-NCLIS.

In March we will hold the AATJ Spring Conference (in conjunction with AAS) in Toronto; it should be beautiful at that time. As you can see from the program included in this newsletter, we have many great sessions planned. I want to express my appreciation to our spring conference co-directors, Mariko Morohashi Wei sensei and Nobuko Chikamatsu Chandler sensei, who coordinated this year’s conference. AATJ’s keynote presenter is Dr. Seiichi Makino, who will be receiving a Lifetime Achievement Award at the spring conference. He will be speaking in Japanese on “To Delete or To Repeat, That’s the Question.” An interview with Makino sensei is also included in this newsletter. I am looking forward to seeing many of you in Toronto.

The 2017 AATJ Annual Spring Conference will be held on Thursday, March 16, 2017, in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, in conjunction with the Annual Meeting of the Association for Asian Studies (AAS) (www.asian-studies.org). A full day of panel and individual paper presentations on Literature, Language Pedagogy, Linguistics, Second Language Acquisition, Language and Technology, and other topics will take place at the Sheraton Centre Toronto Hotel, the site of the AAS conference.

Online registration for the Spring Conference is open. Conference registration fees are $60 for AATJ members ($40 for student members) and $100 for non-members. Online registration ends March 6. After that date only on-site registration will be available in Toronto (US$100; cash or checks only).

To register, go online to http://www.aatj.org/conferences-spring.

The conference program in PDF format, with abstracts for all presentations, can be downloaded from the same website.

The keynote speaker for this year's conference is Professor Seiichi Makino of Princeton University, who is a past president of AATJ and the second recipient of AATJ's Lifetime Achievement Award. He will speak (in Japanese) about aspects of repetition in language learning. The keynote speech and a reception will be held immediately following the research presentations, at the Chestnut Conference Centre, a five-minute walk from the conference hotel.

Accommodations for the conference will be at the Sheraton Centre Toronto Hotel (www.sheratontoronto.com). A special rate is available for those registering through the AAS Annual Meeting website.

We encourage those attending the AATJ Conference to also attend the AAS Annual Meeting, which takes place Friday, March 17, to Sunday, March 19. The AAS conference features many sessions on Japanese (as well as other Asian) history, culture, society, and language; in the conference Exhibit Hall, academic and general-interest publishers, including many from Japan, exhibit and sell Japan- and other Asia-related books and journals. AATJ will have a booth in the Exhibit Hall - please visit us at Booth 211.

AATJ's special sponsored session at this year's AAS annual meeting - a panel on teaching translation and interpreting, organized by our newest Special Interest Group - will take place on Saturday, March 18, at 5:15 p.m.

“To Delete or To Repeat, That’s the Question”

Seiichi Makino, Princeton University

[Abstract]
A functional-linguistic analysis of deletion was systematically presented by Kuno in his 1978 book 『談話の文法』. There he stated the following: "The main objective of deletion is to lower redundancy of a sentence by deleting information known obviously to the listener; even if the speaker hasn’t said anything about it." (p.8) I started to wonder if an act of repetition simply heightens the level of redundancy, and wrote my book 『くりかえしの文法』 in 1980. My encounter and talk with Oriza Hirata, a playwright, led me to start to reconsider issues of repetitions during the past five or six years.

In my talk I will discuss the following nine aspects of repetition: (1) Is an optional deletion rule called the Gapping Rule (穴あけ規則) always optional? (2) Does repetition always express pathos (emotion), not logos (logic)? (3) Is poetic emotion created by rhythmic repetitions? (4) What functions does repetition have in conversation and in dialogue? (5) How is literary style related to repetition? (6) What are the roles of fixed repetitive constructions? (7) When does a Japanese infant start to use repetitions interactively? (8) Are repetitions in elementary Japanese language textbooks enough? (9) What does Benoit Mandelbrot’s Fractal Geometry mean for the theory of repetition?

「省くか、繰り返すか、それが問題だ」
牧野成一

[要旨]
機能言語学的な省略の分析は久野の『談話の文法』（1978）で体系的に議論されている。その著書で久野は「省略の主目的は、話し手が何も言わなくても聞き手にとって自明のインフォーメーションを省くことによって、文の冗長度を下げるることであろう」（p.8）と述べている。それでは、反復は単に文の冗長度を上げることだろうか、と考え、私は反復の分析を『くりかえしの文法』（1980）で書いた。その後、作家の平田オリザと出会って話し合ったことがきっかけとなり、繰り返しの問題を過去5、6年再考してきた。

私の講演では反復をめぐる次の9点の問題点に関して話す。（1）「穴あけ規則」という随意の省略規則は常に随意か。（2）反復はpathos（感情）表現にあたるか。（3）詩的表現はリズムの反復で説明されるか。（4）「会話」と「対話」における反復はどのような機能を持っているか。（5）文は反復とどう関係するか。（6）慣用的な反復表現の役割は何か？（7）いつ日本の幼児は相互作用のために反復を使い始めめるか。（8）日本語初級教科書のダイアログの反復は十分か。（9）言語学ブノワ・マンデルブロの「フラクタル幾何学」の発見は反復理論に何を示唆するか？

The Saga of Japanese Honorifics (keigo): Persistent Myth, Persistent Reality
Panel Sponsored by AATJ
Thursday, March 16, 7:30 – 9:30 p.m.

Patricia Wetzel’s (2004) Keigo in Modern Japan is a backdrop for this interdisciplinary discussion of the current status of keigo studies. It is said that Japanese honorifics embody cultural identity for Japanese speakers and serve as a tool for agency; through keigo, speakers negotiate their identities in what Geertz calls “common sense” fashion. This panel examines the dynamic status of keigo from the viewpoints of anthropology, linguistics, history, literature and pedagogy.

Panelists:
Hiroaki Kawamura (University of Findlay) (chair)
Mari Noda (The Ohio State University)
Steve Nussbaum (Gustolab International – Institute for Food Studies)
Barbara Pizziconi (University of London)
Charles Quinn (The Ohio State University)
Pat Wetzel (Portland State University) (discussant)

Who’s Studying Japanese? Preparing the Next Generation
Panel Sponsored by Japan-US Friendship Commission
Thursday, March 16, 7:30-9:30 p.m.

Who is studying Japanese? And why is Japanese language study important? The study of Japanese language is one of the most critical ways that students get interested and engaged in the study of Japan. This panel will focus on ways to secure interest in and support for Japanese language study amongst the next generation of students, and will discuss ways in which to engage a diverse student body.

Panelists:
Theodore Bestor (Harvard University) (chair)
Any Catalinac (NYU)
Ian Condry (MIT)
Indra Levy (Stanford University)
Motoko Tabuse (Eastern Michigan University; AATJ)

Teaching Translation and Interpreting in a Global Age
Round Table Sponsored by AATJ
Saturday, March 18, 5:15-7:15 p.m.

To mark the inauguration of AATJ’s newest Special Interest Group (SIG), Translating/Interpreting, educators and practitioners discuss the latest developments in teaching the much-needed skills of interpreting and translating. Their topics will include: how translation courses simultaneously develop students’ translation skills and their overall Japanese proficiency; teaching business, technical, and literary translation; helping students who are interested in careers in translating and interpreting; and making cross-language skills one of the cornerstones of cross-cultural education.

Panelists:
James Davis (University of Wisconsin, Madison)
Janet Ikeda (Washington & Lee University) (chair)
Yoshihiro Mochizuki (University of Michigan)
Stephen Snyder (Middlebury College)
Anna Zielinska-Elliott (Boston University)

この度はAATJ（全米日本語教育学会）のLife Time Achievement Awardを受賞された牧野誠一先生とのインタビューが実現しました。牧野先生にはトロントで開催される春季学会での基調講演をして頂けることになりました。インタビューでは牧野先生のご専門分野と日本語教育に関する思いを語って頂きました。

齋藤　牧野先生、この度はAATJ Life Time Achievement Awardの受賞おめでとうございます。

牧野　なにも賞に値することはしておりませんが、ありがとうございます。

齋藤　先生のご専門は理論言語学だと理解していますが、日本語教育と深い関わりを持つきっかけになったのは何でしょうか。

牧野　私は最初は早稲田で英文学を専攻していましたが、文体批評ができれば文学の評価が客観的にできるのではないかと、文体論を読み漁りました。ちょうどそのころソシュールの翻訳者で、かつ文体論学者のイデア・リファテールという学者のいるインディアナ大学に留学しました。ところがこの学者はほかの大学に移ってしまい、初期の目的は果たせず、折から台頭してきていたノーム・チョムスキーの言語学を学ぶことになりました。留学途中、夏の2か月だったのでもう1年ぐらいはアメリカにいようと思い中西部の大学を探していたら、1965年に創設されたばかりのイリノイ大学言語学科で日本語教育の助手をしながら博士課程をイリノイ大ですることになったのです。これが言語学と日本語教育の深い関わりの出発点です。

齋藤　先生はいろいろな地域での日本語教育に関わっていらっしゃいますが、米国の日本語教育をどのように捉えられていらっしゃいますか。

牧野　アメリカの日本語教育の中心であるAATJは日本語教育上の「知の集結地」になっていると思っています。すべての日本語教育のレベル向上のために日本語教育だけではなく言語教育を理論的に支えるさまざまな（応用）言語学を中心に据えています。さらに、文学専攻の会員はもちろん日本語教育のつながる読み教養や翻訳の問題を教えるパネルもあるもので、日本語教育の広く文化社会学の観点に据えます。学会と学会誌で日本語教育に関わりのあるさまざまな考えが発表されており、それを通じて人と人、コミュニティのつながり、ウチの国（日本）とソトの国のつながりに焦点をおく社会・政治学的なアプローチの研究発表・実践報告が発表されています。AATJはソト向きに日本語教育とつながるものを模索することをしています。高校生が大学で取る基本的なコースを先取りできるAdvanced Placementを日本語のコースにも適用し、積極的に支えてきています。教育を支えてお互いがスムーズなつながりを持つ接続の問題を扱うことは非常に大事な点です。

齋藤　先生はAATJの会長もご経験されましたが、先生からご覧になって、米国の日本語教育での強い点はなんですか。

牧野　2つ目のご質問への回答でAATJが先導するアメリカでの日本語教育の強い点はすでに触れましたが、そこで触れなかった点だけ取り上げます。アメリカはカナダやEU諸国と同様に、子供が英語だけのモニターガルになってしまうため、継承言語教育をする切実な
問題が出てきて、アメリカにある日本語学校の先生方にこの10年アメリカでは飛躍的にこの分野の研究と実践が進んでいると思います。私自身がこの問題に気づいたのは息子がアメリカで生まれ、小中高と進むにつれ日本語が弱くなって行ったのを目の当たりにしてからです。イリノイ大学の客員教授として1年間見た鈴木孝夫先生は日本人の親たちはどうして母語を捨てたのか、という痛烈な批判をしていたと思います。さらに、2000年からカリフornia州を中心に行われている日本語教育者のアドボカシー（外国語教育推進運動）があります。目的は日本語教育の支援者を増やするために「声をあげる」活動で、特に公立の中高の日本語教育推進のために州議会へ働きかけることを2000年からやってしまっており、AATJで当途健彦先生がかなり早くからアドボカシーを進めていらっしゃいます。

齋藤 ではこれからの日本語教育の課題は何だと思うわれますか。
牧野 そうですね。ひとつ前のご質問へのお答えの続きになりますが、一般性のある、包括的で、ユニークな日本語教育理論を展開することでしょう。その為にはまず借り物でない言語・文化理論で、しかも日本語教育と車の両輪の一つになるようなものを考え、新しい日本語教育法を地道に編み出すことです。日本語教育の中からもアメリカの英語教育から出てくる外国語教育のように一般的な枠組を提案しなければならないと思います。

齋藤 ではこれからＡＡＴＪの日本語教育の推進策は何かと思います。
牧野 このご質問にお答えするのは非常に難しいです。おっしゃるように、MLAの調査によると、米国の外国語学習者が2009年から2013年の間に6.7％減少したそうです。小中高校でも、日本語だけでなく、外国語プログラムが縮小、廃止されることが多々あるようです。国際化が進む中、米国で外国語学習者が伸びない要因は何だと思うますか。そのような中で、AATJとして、日本語教育をどう推進していったらいといいと考えています。
しているアメリカ人の状況を把握して、人文系と非人文系の先輩がどのような経路で日本語使用の仕事についているか、後輩が日本語を学ぶためにはどんなことをすべきだと思うのか、など詳しい状況を調べて、現在日本語を取っている学生たちに教えることが必要ではないでしょうか。学部生が夏期日本語・日本文化研修をすると時に学習者が将来日本で就職することを先輩に来てもらって話を聞くこと、日本語からみた就職をうかがうような教材を開発する必要もあるでしょう。もう一點大事な点があります。

齋藤 先生は日本語教育だけでなく、教員指導にも深く関わってきていらっしゃいましたが、米国では、これからの日本語教育を担う若い教員達が育つためにどのようなことが必要だと思いますか。

牧野 日本語教育を担う若い先生が成長するためには、先輩格の先生の偏りのない指導が大切だと思います。私が現役のときはプリンストン大学では一人ひとりの先生が何か日本語教育上の研究をしてそれを年に一回は発表することにしました。プリンストンでは私が引退後、1991年から春にかかわらず学会を開き、外部から日本語教育の経験豊かな先生方の発表をいながらにして開催するようになりました。そのうちにプリンストンの先生もこの学会で発表するようになり、成長して行きました。プリンストンのソトからの日本語教育の著名な学者を呼び、親しく交流する機会ができ、視野が広がり開かれたと思います。この学会はPrinceton Japanese Pedagogy Forum Proceedingsを出しています。私は今までACTFLの4日間のOPI Workshopを日本を中心に韓国やフランスでやってきましたが、プリンストン大学でも3、4回行い、日本語の口頭能力を測る一つのテスト法を学ぶだけでなく、そこでも日本語教育一般の問題を参加者同士が話し合う場になっています。ACTFLには口頭能力だけでなく、聞く能力、読む能力、書く能力の基準があります。そのテストは未開発ですが、早い時期に目通しをお願いです。私はフィリップスエール時代に一歩と教員開発に手を出していましたが、若い教員は将来自分で教材開発ができるよう指導することも肝心です。教科書を批判することはたやすくですが、それを作成することはどんな小さいスケールのものでも有益な作業になります。

齋藤 先生が現在、興味を持って研究されているテーマは何ですか。

牧野 かなり前から継続している研究テーマは日本の文芸を英語に翻訳するときに日本語の表記、書記方向、数の単複、時制の転換、受動・自発・可能構文に現れる「自然の声」、繰り返し現象、共感、比喻（とりわけ深層の比喻）などを総合的にまとめるもので、此の中で比喻に関しては英語でいかに共通点があるかを過去15年以上も谷川俊太郎先生と意見を交わしながら書き上げているところです。ウチとソトという空間概念のメトノミーとして考えていますが、言語と文化に関してウチとソトで説明できるものを絶えず考えています。「繰り返し現象」は1980年に『くりかえしの文法』（大修館）として出版していますが、目下繰り返しを最初から見直しています。繰り返しは認知言語学・心理学での焦点の一つである「感情」（パトス）の問題と繋がっているということと、それとは対照的なブノワ・マンデルブローという数学者（1924~2010）が「フラクタル幾何学」として言語以外の自然の中の複雑現象を数学の研究対象にした「フラクタル」（自己相似形）の観点に強い興味を持っています。例えば、ブロッサムの一見複雑な構造も最初の形を成長過程で繰り返し模倣をしているということです。それから、このインタビューの最初に触れた文体論の一部として、漱石の未完の小説『明暗』を書き上げた水村美苗の日本語の文体が漱石の文体とどの程度一致しているのか、同じく漱石の文体の問題ですが、漱石の文体が修善寺の大患以前と以後で変化したという論を文体論者の小林英夫が発表していますが、それが正しいかどうかの検証研究をしたいと思っています。さらに明治から大正、昭和にかけて出てきた著名な作家の代作者たち代作する著者の文体をどのように再現しているのか、という問題を研究しはじめた所です。日本語上級の読みの教育にしても文体も含めるべきです。トロントでのAATJの学会での基調演講では「繰り返し」についてお話しましたが、この研究も初級から上級までの日本語教育にそのままはねかえりがあります。
齋藤 先生が仕事でやりがいを感じるときはどんなときですか。また、もし言語学者、日本語教師になっていなかったら、どのような職業を選択されていたとお思いですか。

牧野 私は自由の身ですから、講演をしたり集中講義をしたりしていますが、話し合うのが大好きですから、聞いてくださる方々といろいろな形で偶然つながっていき、それがまた思わぬ進展につながるとき、やり甲斐を感じます。日本語の文法などの新しい見方に出会ったり、思いついたりする時は一番やり甲斐を感じます。もし言語と言語教育をしていなかったら、ということを考えたことはありません。今やっていることで十分楽しいからでしょう。

齋藤 ご研究でも、ご趣味でも、先生がこれから新しく始みたいと思っていらっしゃることはありますか。

牧野 そうですね、3つあります。1つ目は日本の大学で7年間も古典ギリシャ語を勉強したのでギリシャに一度は行ってみたいですね。2つ目は、共通ギリシャ語で書かれている新約聖書の自然の比喩の分析を通して聖書の「非神話化」をしてみたいのです。多分若い時読んでいたルドルフ・カール・プルトマン（1884-1996）の影響かもしれません。3つ目も2つ目と関係がありますが、スペインのバルセロナに行って、アントニオ・ガウディのアニミティックな建造物「聖家族教会」がどうしても見たいです。

齋藤 これから日本語教員を目指す若い会員の方々へメッセージをお願いします。

まず日本語教員をめざす若い会員でまだ修士号を取っていらっしゃらない方は日本語の修士コースのある最寄りの大学で修士号を取ることを強くお勧めします。宣伝めて申し訳ありませんが、修士コースを選ぶ前にどんなことを学ぶのかを掴むために、私が深く関わってきたコロンビア大学の東洋言語・文化学科にある夏期日本語教育修士のプログラムについて説明します。このプログラムは1996年に始まったもので、ずっと続いています。夏続けて3回って日本語教育の修士号をとるプログラムです。学ぶ内容は、日本語教授法と模擬授業、第2言語習得理論、教材の電子化、日本語の音声学と音韻論、文法論、意味論、日本語史、言語社会学、プラグマティックス、認知言語学、日本語と文学などのコースを取り、3回目の夏には修論を出すというもので、先生はアメリカ、日本、オーストラリアからそれぞれの分野の専門家が教えてくれています。近い将来ミドルベリーにも日本語教育の修士プログラムができるはずです。

なお、外国語教育の諸問題を総括的にとらえて書かれたAlice Omaggio Hadley（1993）の教科書Teaching Language in Contextを読んでいただくことをお勧めします。

牧野 齋藤先生、インタビューをどうもありがとうございました。どうぞ新任のAATJ会長として会の発展にご貢献ください。

齋藤 牧野先生、この度はお忙しいなかお時間を頂けありがとうございました。トロントでの先生の基調講演を心待ちにしております。

J-Can Project Report
by Yasuo Uotate, AFTJ President

It has been seven months since the summer J-CAN Workshop on July 8-10, 2016. The J-CAN Project has been moving forward and clearly making a positive impact in the four regions represented by the Association of Florida Teachers of Japanese (AFTJ), the Mid-Atlantic Association of Teachers of Japanese (MAATJ), the Ohio Association of Teachers of Japanese (OATJ), and the Southeastern Association of Teachers of Japanese (SEATJ).

The regional associations have several ongoing articulation projects based on the Core Practices as a common language, and we have further strengthened our networks within and among organizations through follow-up online meetings and conference participations.

More than ten J-CAN Project members participated in the SEATJ 2017 conference and gave four presentations to share their articulation efforts. Their presentations with practical project ideas with concrete examples were inspiring and well received.

- Developing tasks using authentic materials through teacher collaboration (SEATJ)
- Implementation of Can-Do Statements in the Genki I Japanese courses (AFTJ)
- J-CAN Project: Teaching grammar as a concept and using it in context (MAATJ & OATJ)
- The development and expansion of the community through articulation projects in the Association of Florida Teachers of Japanese (AFTJ)

At the ACTFL 2016 conference, the J-CAN Project leadership group and several participating members gave two presentations. Their J-CAN Project presentation engaged the audience in discussing the significance of expanding and sustaining articulation projects that started with the Japanese Global Articulation Project (J-GAP) in 2011. Furthermore, a large number of native- and non-native-speaking Japanese teachers enjoyed the presentation about Six Core Practices.

The J-CAN Project is co-sponsored by the AATJ and the Japan Foundation, Los Angeles (JFLA) as part of AATJ’s J-CAN initiative. We greatly appreciate the AATJ and the JFLA’s support for the regional associations’ efforts.

Spring is right around the corner and filled with exciting events for our students in Illinois. This coming March, students will be able to participate in annual events to encourage their Japanese studies. The Japan America Society will be conducting the Illinois Japan Bowl at North Central College. Later in the month of March, students will be able to showcase their speaking skills at the Japanese Language Speech Contest. Heritage learners were able to compete in Illinois’ first Heritage Japanese Speech Contest this past January. Both speech contests are held at the Japan Information Center in Chicago.

Japanese language teachers will be able to develop their teaching skills at IATJ’s annual workshop being offered on April 30th. In addition to our workshop, IATJ members were able to apply for a scholarship funded by the Japan Foundation and IATJ to help offset the cost of attending the 2017 ACTFL Convention in Nashville, Tennessee. Congratulations to the following award recipients: Yasuko Makita-Discekici of Glenbrook High School, Jeung-Hee Park of Northside College Prep High School, Yukiko Schrock of Whitney Young Magnet High School, and Ryoko Uechi of Intercultural Montessori Language School.

Report from Illinois Association of Teachers of Japanese

by Karla Button, IATJ President

WATJ is looking forward to another busy year supporting our members. Already we have hosted our Oshogatsu Workshop and Potluck. By the time of publication, we will have also held our 24th annual conference on Saturday, February 11. This year we are honored to have Kiyomi Chinen-sensei from CSU Long Beach as our keynote speaker, with several afternoon breakout workshop sessions. We hope our World Languages colleagues will join us, as we have opened our conference to all language teachers for the past several years.

WATJ co-sponsors the annual Washington State Speech and Skit Contest for high school students. This year, the festival is on Friday, April 21. Every year, students compete at various levels to present individual speeches or group skits, performing in front of audiences gathering at the Seattle Center for the annual Cherry Blossom Festival.

Our June through August events include our last of three workshops for the 2017-18 calendar year in early June and the annual Summer Institute, held in conjunction with the Hyogo Business and Cultural Center, August 21-23.
2017 Year of the Rooster NENGAJO Contest Results
by Kazumi Yamashita-Iverson, AATJ Nengajo Contest Director

Thanks to everyone who participated in the 2017 NENGAJO Contest. We had 794 cards submitted by 125 teachers from schools nationwide this year. I am very pleased that the number of participants are increasing every year!

Following list is the number of members of each local affiliate submitted the NENGAJOs and the number of cards submitted for each category.

The winning cards were chosen by blind-anonymous judging. My colleagues, Ami Kaneko, and Naoko Iwasaki have helped me selecting finalists. Then, about 20 staff member of Maloney Interdistrict Magnet School voted for the best cards for each category. I have confidence that the winning cards represent each category very well. The most artistic cards for the Artistic category, the funniest ones for the Comical category, the most creative ones for the Original category, and the most technical ones for the CG category.
All of the winners received an award certificate and an Amazon gift card ($25 for the first place, $20 for the second place, and $15 for the third place) for their accomplishment. Some students received an Honorable Mention, which means their card was one of the finalists and all participants received certificates of participation. It was a very difficult to decide winners since all the nominations were excellent and clearly show the hard work of your students and AATJ members. There are some disqualified ones due to not following requirements. Please make sure to follow all the requirements next time.

Congratulations to all participants, especially award winners! I hope AATJ NENGJO contest helps you teaching a culture and advocating your program. I would also like to thank you for the opportunity to work as AATJ NENGJO Contest Director. This is my last time serving as a director. Mio Nishimura-Sensei of Alisal High School will take over the position next year.

If you have questions or concerns, please contact Kazumi Yamashita-Iverson at: kyunamashita@waterbury.k12.ct.us

The second annual J.LIVE Talk 2016 was held on Sunday, November 13, 2016 at the George Washington University. With an emphasis on 21st century communication skills, J.LIVE (Japanese Learning Inspired Vision and Engagement) Talk 2016 invited college level Japanese learners to showcase their presentation skills. The contest encouraged contestants to make use of audio-visual materials, audience interactions, and other innovations to enhance the messages they delivered in Japanese. Q&A sessions with the judges and audience members also allowed the contestants to display their interpersonal skills.

This was the first year that J.LIVE Talk opened its door to colleges and universities beyond the East Coast. A panel of five judges evaluated each finalist’s presentation by taking into consideration not only his or her linguistic proficiency, but also the vision and dynamism he or she displayed, and the level of audience engagement that he or she was able to achieve. Each finalist’s presentation, which was accompanied by PowerPoint slides and audio-visual clips, was followed by 2 to 3 questions from the judges and the audience. (Only the judges’ Q&A session had an impact on the contestants’ score; the Q&A with the audience was not scored.) Mr. Tamaki Tsukada, the Minister for Public Affairs of the Embassy of Japan, served as a judge. He said that selecting awardees from amongst the finalists’ excellent presentations was a “very tough call.” After careful consideration, the following decisions were announced in the Award Ceremony.

Category I: Intermediate Low-Mid

Gold Award Winner
Brigette Faula A. Labastida, Old Dominion University: フィリピン系アメリカ人学生会 “Filipino-American Student group.”

Silver Award Winner
Tyler Burton, George Washington University: 効果的の勉強法：生きた経験の大切さ “The effective way to study: Importance of life experiences.”

Bronze Award Winner
Kenneth Mercado, California State University at Sacramento: ディズニーイマジニアになる “I will become a Disney Imagineer.”

Category II: Intermediate High-Advanced Low

Gold Award Winner
Kexin Ma, the College of William and Mary: 黒い茶碗の中の世界 “The world inside a black tea cup.”

Silver Award Winner
Sumrestar Beauchamp, The University of Findlay: 子供の目を持ちましょう！ “Let’s live through children’s eyes!”

Bronze Award Winner
Hyung Jin Cho, the University of Maryland, College Park: マイクになってください “Please become the microphone.”

Category III: Advanced Mid-Advanced High

Gold Award Winner
Robert Duanmu, Cornell University: 中国語を勉強しろ！ “Study Chinese!”

Silver Award Winner
Jong In (Joe) Chey, the University of Virginia: “Vision.”

Bronze Award Winner
Tak Chi Wan, Emory University: より充実した日々を送る方法 “How to live your days with more fulfillment.”
The Japan Center for Michigan University Symposium will provide a forum for scholars and teachers of Japanese culture, Japanese language, and English language to gather and exchange knowledge in their area of expertise on Saturday, June 3 and Sunday, June 4, 2017.

The conference features individual paper presentations as well as panels and roundtables at which faculty and graduate students present and discuss new research and pedagogical tools.

INVITED PRESENTERS
· E. Taylor Atkins, Northern Illinois University (Cultural History of Modern Japan and Korea)
· M. Endo Hudson, Michigan State University (Linguistics and Language pedagogy) and more.

SUBMITTING PROPOSALS
Proposals are solicited for panels, roundtables, individual papers, and workshops for all fields in areas related to Japanese culture, Japanese language, and English language.

We will accept abstracts on a rolling basis up to April 1, 2017.

Please click on the link in the symposium website (https://jcmuofficialblog.com/2017-jcmu-symposium-june-3rd-and-4th/) to submit a 200-word proposal in English or Japanese.

The Japan Center for Michigan Universities (JCMU) study abroad program is a product of the strong sister-state relationship between the State of Michigan and Shiga Prefecture. It is located on the shore of Lake Biwa in the City of Hikone, Shiga Prefecture, Japan. Our programs are dedicated to building relationships between Japanese, Americans, and other nationalities through active learning and participation in language, culture, family life and society. Since 1989, JCMU has been welcoming students of all majors and from any university, not only a member school.

Cash awards of $300, $200, and $100 were presented, respectively, to the Gold, Silver, Bronze award winners in each category. Gold award winners also received additional exciting prizes. The Category I Gold award winner, Ms. Brigette Faula A. Labastida, received a scholarship to study at a six-week summer intensive Japanese language course at Nanzan University in Nagoya, Japan, along with an ANA round-trip ticket from the U.S. to Japan and a living stipend of $2,700. The Category II Gold award winner, Ms. Kexin Ma, received a scholarship to study at a six-week summer intensive Japanese language course at the Naganuma School, along with an ANA round-trip ticket from the U.S. to Japan and a living stipend of $2700. The Category III Gold award winner, Mr. Robert Duanmu was offered a choice between an all-expenses paid tour of Japan from January 9-16, 2017 (as part of the Kakehashi Project organized and sponsored by the Japanese Ministry of Foreign Affairs), and an ANA round trip ticket from the U.S. to Japan. The J.LIVE Talk 2016 was made possible with generous support (in alphabetical order) from: All Nippon Airways, Department of East Asian Languages and Literatures, GW, The Embassy of Japan in the United States of America, George Washington University, Dr. Shoko Hamano, Japan Commerce Association of Washington, DC, Inc, Japan Commerce Association of Washington, DC, Foundation, Inc, Japan Foundation Los Angeles, Language Center, GW, Naganuma School, Nanzan University, Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA, Sigur Center for Asian Studies, GW, Sojitz Foundation, TOP NY, Washington Japanese Heritage Center.

Job Opening Announcements

Bates College

Bates College, a residential liberal arts college in Maine, invites applications for a Japanese Language Learning Associate (LA) starting late August 2017 and ending mid-April 2018. We are looking for a dynamic individual who can work closely with our undergraduate students both inside and outside the classroom, and who will support our small and energetic community of Japanese learners and speakers on campus. The candidate must have native fluency in Japanese and experience of teaching Japanese in the classroom. A B.A. degree is required, and an M.A. degree and training in language pedagogy are highly desirable.

The Learning Associate is expected to work 35 hours per week (inclusive of preparation time). Responsibilities include aiding professors in teaching language courses, running drill sessions, tutoring, and planning and organizing extracurricular activities. In addition to a monthly stipend, the Learning Associate is provided with full room and board, visa fees, a per diem allowance when the college is on break, and compensation for travel from the home country where appropriate.

Applicants should submit the following documents electronically, in PDF format, to Professor Keiko Konoeda at kkonoeda@bates.edu: a letter of application, curriculum vitae, and undergraduate and graduate (if any) transcripts. Two letters of recommendation should be sent directly to the same address by the recommenders. Please include your last name and the words “LA application” in the subject line of all submissions. Review of applications will begin February 27, 2017, and continue until the position is filled. Employment is contingent upon the successful completion of a background check.

Bates is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. Bates College and the Asian Studies Program are committed to enhancing the diversity of the campus and the curriculum. We welcome applications from all individuals with the ability to contribute to the college’s continuing commitment to social and cultural diversity, inclusiveness, and the transformative power of our differences.

Ball State University

The Department of Modern Languages and Classics at Ball State University invites applications for a full-time, one-year contract faculty position to teach Japanese courses starting August, 2017.

Major responsibilities: Teaching load is 12 credit hours in three or four language classes in Japanese each semester. The teaching assignment will generally include introductory as well as intermediate level courses. The primary emphasis for contract faculty is excellence in language teaching. Candidate must also demonstrate a willingness to participate in departmental activities and perform other duties as assigned by the department chairperson.

Minimum qualifications: Master’s degree or higher in Japanese or appropriate related field, from an accredited college or university; strong commitment to teaching Japanese to undergraduates; native or near-native fluency in Japanese and English.

Preferred qualifications: Ph.D. in Japanese or appropriate related field; evidence of successful Japanese language teaching at the college level.

Candidates for searches must have current authorization to be employed in the U.S. without employer sponsorship.

Send letter of application, curriculum vitae, official transcripts, and three recent letters of recommendation to:

Bowdoin College
The Asian Studies Program at Bowdoin College invites applications for a one-year leave replacement position in Japanese Language and Culture at the rank of Assistant Professor or Instructor beginning July 1, 2017. The successful candidate will teach one Japanese language class, and another class in English in their area of specialization. Areas of teaching may include Japanese literature, culture, film, or theatre. Preference will be given to candidates with a Ph.D., but ABDs are also encouraged to apply. Native or near-native fluency in Japanese, and experience teaching Japanese to English-speaking students at the college level are required. Bowdoin College accepts only electronic submissions. Please visit https://careers.bowdoin.edu to submit a cover letter, CV, and the names and contact information for two people who have agreed to provide letters of reference. A language-teaching demonstration video/DVD may be requested after initial review of application materials. Review of applications will begin on February 20, 2017, and continue until the position is filled.

Georgia Institute of Technology
The School of Modern Languages at Georgia Institute of Technology in Atlanta seeks six recent PhDs with training in modern languages (French, German, Japanese, Mandarin Chinese, Russian, and Spanish) for the newly instituted Global Languages, Cultures, and Technologies (GLACT) Post-doctoral Program. The GLACT Program seeks to foster collaboration across languages, technologies, and global cultures. GLACT positions are full-time and renewable for up to three years. They include a 3/3 teaching assignment (with opportunities for a course offset in support of academic program development), health and retirement benefits, a salary of $45,000 per academic year, and a professional-development allocation. Candidates with expertise in innovative teaching... methodologies and interest in shaping cross-disciplinary language program development for the 21st Century are especially encouraged to apply.

Teaching and Curricular Development: The GLACT Program involves teaching a range of undergraduate courses with one to two courses possible in the candidate’s area of research specialization. The GLACT Program includes opportunities for curricular and program development in topics related to languages, cultures, and technologies, as well as potential instruction in connection with our signature summer study abroad programs Languages for Business and Technology (LBAT). Interest in collaboration with faculty and researchers in the School of Modern Languages and across the Institute – including in technology-oriented disciplines – is vital, as the GLACT position involves teaching a range of students while contributing to new and innovative academic programming that aligns with Georgia Tech strategic priorities. Within each language concentration, preferred specializations include:

- French: Applied Linguistics; Second Language Acquisition; Online Instruction and E-learning.
- German: Language for business and Technology; online instruction; contribution to the LBAT program.
- Japanese: Linguistics; Language and Technology (NLP expertise is a plus); content-based courses in Japanese, including advanced levels; contribution to the LBAT program.
- Mandarin Chinese: Chinese Linguistics; Second Language Acquisition; Heritage Learning; and Online Instruction
- Russian: Culture and Media Studies; Language for Business and STEM; contribution to the LBAT program; Linguistics.
- Spanish: Technical and Business Spanish; Spanish for the Healthcare Profession, Linguistics, Online Instruction.

Research: Candidates are expected to continue their scholarly agendas and are encouraged to extend them to include research in areas such as pedagogy, service learning, international education, digital humanities, cross-disciplinary language and technology instructional innovation, and assessment. The GLACT Program encourages active collaboration on shared research interests as part of a vibrant scholarly community, with regular and formalized opportunities for feedback, mentorship, and intellectual development.

Professional Development: Candidates are supported in their professional development toward academic and non-academic career paths through projects such as programmatic assessment, grant writing, administration, publishing, and public relations.

Service: Candidates may serve on committees to help shape programmatic initiatives in areas such as innovative instructional technologies, curriculum development, recruitment and outreach, and professional opportunities for Georgia Tech students in the global arena.

To Apply: Position requirements include a PhD awarded no more than five years prior to appointment plus demonstrated research and teaching strengths. Dossiers should include a letter of application, curriculum vitae, teaching portfolio (minimally, a teaching statement, sample syllabi, and summary of course evaluations/comments; additional elements are acceptable), and three letters of recommendation, to be submitted in one single PDF document to glact-hiring@modlangs.gatech.edu. Only digital applications will be reviewed. Review of applications begins on March 1, 2017, and continues until the positions are filled. Expected start date is August 15, 2017.

The Georgia Institute of Technology is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. The School of Modern Languages is especially interested in considering applications from minority candidates.
Harvard University
The Department of East Asian Languages and Civilizations at Harvard University anticipates an opening for a full-time Drill Instructor/Teaching Assistant in Japanese expected to begin August 1, 2017, and to extend through June 30, 2018. Drill instructors teach small-group drill sections in Japanese language classes under the supervision of a course head and assist the course head in preparing class materials, grading, and providing individual assistance to students. Candidates must have native or near-native fluency in all modalities of Japanese (reading, writing, listening, and speaking); a bachelor’s degree or higher; experience teaching Japanese, preferably at the college level to students whose native language is English; and computer literacy.
This is a term appointment for one year, with the possibility of renewal dependent on performance and curricular need.
Interested candidates should submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, and the names and contact information of three references (who will be invited to upload letters of recommendation) to http://academicpositions.harvard.edu/postings/7427. The references will be contacted separately and invited to upload letters of recommendation. Candidates should also submit a 20-minute teaching demo by URL through the ARiE portal. All the above should be submitted by February 28, 2017.
Selected candidates will be contacted directly in mid-March for an interview to be conducted either by Skype, for candidates outside the Boston area, or on the Harvard campus, for candidates within the Boston area.
Please note that references will only be invited to upload letters of recommendation after a complete application has been submitted online. Please plan ahead so that the three letters can be submitted no later than March 7. Harvard is an equal opportunity employer, and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.

Haverford College
Haverford College invites applications for a full-time Visiting Instructor position in the Japanese Language Program in the Bi-College Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures, to begin in the Fall semester of 2017. This is a one-year position with the possibility of renewal, depending on staffing needs, funding, and positive evaluations.
The Bi-College Japanese Language Program offers four levels of language instruction for Haverford College and Bryn Mawr College students. The successful candidate will team-teach courses, develop online learning/testing resources, and engage in program-related activities/tasks, which vary depending on immediate needs. Preference will be given to candidates who have taught Japanese in a liberal arts college setting, especially those familiar with the textbooks “Genki” (The Japan Times) and “Tobira” (Kurosio Publishers). Also desirable are: full professional proficiency in both English and Japanese; competence in developing teaching materials; advanced computer skills; and the ability to teach an Advanced Japanese course. The topics of such a course might include literature, classical Japanese, translation, science/technology-related topics, and/or social justice and civic engagement.
Candidates for the position should have an M.A. in Japanese pedagogy or a related field and an excellent teaching record. Please submit the following files (PDF format) to: http://apply.interfolio.com/40545. 1) a cover letter stating an interest in the position; 2) curriculum vitae; 3) sample course syllabi in elementary and/or Advanced Japanese; 4) sample of recently developed learning/testing materials/websites (2-3 pages); 5) sample course evaluations (1-2 pages); and,
6) a statement of teaching philosophy and professional goals (1-2 pages). Please prepare a teaching demo video clip (50-60 minutes) to be shared online and indicate the link on the cover letter. Also, please arrange to have two confidential letters of recommendation sent to the Interfolio site above.
Review of applications will begin starting March 1, 2017, and continue until the position is filled.
Questions about the application process should be directed to Karla Alfaro-Urias (kalfarou@haverford.edu). For technical questions, please contact Interfolio directly at 877-997-8807 or help@interfolio.com.

University of Notre Dame

The Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures at the University of Notre Dame invites applications for two full-time visiting lecturer positions in Japanese language beginning August 2017. One is a replacement position, the other is a new lecturer position added for next year as the Japanese program at Notre Dame continues to grow. Both positions have one-year initial appointments with the possibility of renewal. Responsibilities include teaching first-year through advanced Japanese (11-13 hours per week), active program involvement in language and culture activities, and close collaboration with faculty to build a rigorous and cohesive program. Appointments offer excellent benefits and competitive salary commensurate with qualifications and experience.

QUALIFICATIONS: M.A. or higher degree in teaching Japanese as a foreign language, linguistics, second language acquisition, or related field; and demonstrated success teaching Japanese at the college/university level in the United States. ABDs and Ph.Ds are encouraged to apply. We are seeking highly skilled language instructors with native or near-native proficiency in Japanese and English.

As an international Catholic, research university, the University of Notre Dame has made a significant commitment to furthering Asian studies, as evidenced in the founding of the Liu Institute for Asia and Asian Studies and the opening of a new graduate School of Global Affairs, both of which collaborate regularly with our growing Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures. Information about Notre Dame is available at http://www.nd.edu; information about the Japanese Program and the Department can be found at http://eastasian.nd.edu.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS: Submit cover letter, current curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, an unedited video clip of classroom teaching and corresponding lesson plan, teaching evaluations, and three letters of recommendation. Review of applications will begin February 24, 2017, and continue until the positions are filled. Inquiries can be made to Professor
Vassar College
Vassar College invites applications for the position of Japanese Language Fellow (Intern) for the 2017-18 academic year (late August 2017 through May 2018).

Vassar College is an affirmative action and equal opportunity employer with a strong commitment to increasing the diversity of the campus community and the curriculum and promoting an environment of equality, inclusion and respect for difference. Candidates who can contribute to that goal are encouraged to identify their strengths and experiences in this area. Applicants who have demonstrated commitment to diversity and inclusion are particularly encouraged to apply.

The Language Fellow, who must be a native speaker of Japanese, assists the Japanese faculty members in preparing teaching materials and conducting drill sessions for 12 hours a week. Language Fellows receive free room and board on Vassar’s campus in student housing for the academic year, a monthly stipend of $650 for 10 months, and health insurance coverage. They may also take up to two courses per semester free at Vassar. Language Fellows must have a B.A. and be fluent in English.

To apply, please send a cover letter, vita, an audio recording introducing yourself in both Japanese and English, and at least one recommendation letter. Review of applications is ongoing until the position is filled. Please send applications to Peipei Qiu, Chair, Department of Chinese and Japanese, Box 285, Vassar College, 124 Raymond Avenue, Poughkeepsie, NY 12604 or (preferably) via email to chineseandjapanese@vassar.edu.
