2022 年 年賀状コンテスト

We are going to participate in the Nengajo Contest. It is a Nation-wide contest, and each entry will receive a certificate. Some of you may win a top prize!

Here are the criteria for the contest:

- Nengajo must be on a 4x6 inch white, unlined index card, or digitally created to be reflective of a 4x6 ratio.
- Your Nengajo can be created for one of the following categories: Artistic, Comical, Encouragement, or Computer-Generated..
- Design for Artistic, Comical, and Encouragement must be original and hand written (note taken from a manga, an anime, a website, or other images which is copyright-protected).
- 4 Design for Computer-Generated may include personal photos and original art.
- Write your name (no nicknames) in Katakana (unless your name is of Japanese origin: teacher-assigned Japanese names are not allowed) and in ink vertically or horizontally on the left-hand side of the card.
- 6 All Hiragana, Katakana, and Kanji must be written in pen.
- 7 Your design must include:

MS/HS/College

- Student's name must be written vertically or horizontally on the left-hand side of the card in Katakana (unless name is of Japanese origin----teacher-assigned names are not allowed.
- 2022 or □○□□
- 元旦 or 一日
- Kanji for tiger 寅 or 虎
- Design must be in good taste across international cultures and societies without potentially making any specific viewer of the card uncomfortable or causing a question as to its tastefulness.
- 9 Theme must focus on the upcoming 2022 Year of the Tiger.

