- If you do not receive the Order Confirmation, please check your spam folder first, and if you do not find it anywhere, please contact JLPT immediately as you may not have been registered.

Observance of Health and Safety Measures:

• You must comply with any health and safety measures (for example, wearing a face mask, or sanitizing your hands, that the Host Institution imposes at the test venue.

If you are feeling unwell on the Test Day:

- If you have any symptoms (for example coughing, sore throat, high fever and/or headache) on the test day, you should not attend the test.
- The Host Institution reserves the right to refuse you from sitting the exam at its absolute discretion if you are reasonably suspected to have such symptoms. In that event, you will be deemed to have forfeited any test fee that you have paid.

[How to Apply to Take the JLPT in the US]

Visit the website for the JLPT in the US (https://www.aatj.org/jlpt-us). Links to the online registration system will be available during the application period. You will need to create an account and register using that system. Parents, groups, and anyone registering more than one test taker, must use a different email address for each test taker. The registration system needs a unique email address for every user account.

Special Testing Accommodations (STA)

- Applicants with an impairment or disability may request STA. Registration and payment for the JLPT must be completed first. There is a specific question on the application form regarding STA, and affected applicants should check the box: "Do you need Special Accommodations?" with "Yes" as the answer.
- After the application is complete, additional STA forms and related medical documents must then be submitted electronically to American Association of Teachers of Japanese, JLPT (ilpt@aatj.org).
- The deadline for completion of STA applications will be September 4 (Mon) at 5pm PDT.
- The additional STA forms are available online at https://www.aatj.org/jlpt-us.

There is no assurance that accommodations will be granted. If an applicant fails to complete the STA procedure by the deadline, or if the STA request is unsuccessful, the applicant will still be allowed to attempt the Test under the same regular conditions as other examinees.

2023 JLPT Rules and Policies for Test Participation

The Japanese Language Proficiency Test ("JLPT") is organized by the Japan Foundation ("JF") in collaboration with the American Association of Teachers of Japanese ("AATJ"), which will act as the "Administrator" to conduct the JLPT at 18 test sites in the United States in 2023.

The Rules and Policies for Test Participation ("JLPT Rules") pertain to registration, participation, and issuance of test scores and certificates of proficiency in connection with the 2023 JLPT. Registrants for the JLPT are referred to as "you," "the registrant," or "the examinee." It is the registrant's responsibility to read the JLPT Rules carefully and comply with them.

1. Acceptance of JLPT Rules

By registering online for the JLPT, you are agreeing to abide by these JLPT Rules as well as all requirements specified or communicated to you either verbally or in written form at the test site for which you have registered even if your registration form is received without your signature. The JF and AATJ reserve the right to change or amend the JLPT Rules without notice.

2. Registration

Submission of a completed application and advance payment in full of the test fee are required in addition to your agreement to abide by the JLPT Rules.

3. Payment Policies

All payments must be completed in advance online for your application to be processed. The fees for registration must be paid by credit card and you will not be eligible for JLPT registration until the full payment is received.

4. Refund Policy

All fees are non-refundable, unless the local test committee cancels the exam. See paragraph 16 (Test Delay/Test Cancellation Policy) below. Should a refund be granted after the registration deadline, a $10 administration fee will be deducted from the test fee.

Note: No refunds will be given if the Test is not cancelled but an examinee is impacted or unable to sit for the test due to travel restrictions, regional lockdown, or any other reason related to COVID-19.

5. Withdrawal or Absence from Test Administration

If you withdraw your registration or are absent on the day of the test, you will forfeit any test fee that you have paid, and you will not receive a refund or credit. Registration and fees cannot be transferred or deferred to future tests.

6. Test Level and Test Site Change Policy

Once your registration is completed, no cancellations or changes are allowed.

7. Identification

You must bring to the test site a current government-issued identification printed in English with the name in which you registered, and including your photograph. Copies will not be accepted.

Acceptable forms of official identification include a driver's license, passport, or state-issued ID. If you are a minor, a student ID is also acceptable as long as the ID includes a photograph and name. Unacceptable forms of ID include social security cards, credit or ATM cards, and retail credit cards. If the name on your identification differs from the name in which you are registered, you must bring a court-certified copy of the official name change (e.g., marriage certificate, court order, etc.). If you do not have proper identification at the time of your test, you will be denied admission to the test session. If you are refused admission to the test, for any reason, you will be considered absent and will not receive a credit or refund of any kind.

8. Late Arrival

If you arrive more than 10 minutes after the test administration has begun for any given section (except for the listening section*), you may be denied admission, in which case you will be considered absent. You may be permitted to complete the remaining sections, provided that you comply with the test rules. A decision of pass or fail will be given only to those examinees who take all sections of the test.

*Once the listening section of the test starts, no one will be allowed to enter the classroom. If you arrive after the test administration has begun for the listening section, you will be denied admission and you will be considered absent from that section.

9. Test Materials are the Property of JF

All test booklets, answer sheets, and other test materials are the sole property of the Japan Foundation. You are not permitted to take, copy, photograph, or otherwise reproduce or transmit, any test materials, in whole or in part, by any means including by hand or with the use of any electronic device of any kind.

10. Test Session

The total test time is between 90 and 170 minutes long (not including breaks), depending on the test level you take. After being admitted to the test site, you may not leave until you have been officially dismissed and all of your test materials have been collected by an administrator. At the end of the exam, once your materials are collected and you are dismissed, you must leave the test site and will not be allowed to re-enter once you leave.

The registrant must follow all reasonable instructions given either verbally or in written form throughout the test, including but not limited to instructions to relocate during the test session. You are not to communicate with other examinees or any unauthorized persons in any way during the test administration, nor engage in any other form of misconduct or behavior that would disrupt or unfairly affect the performance of other examinees.

You are NOT permitted to use the following items during the test: notes, cellular phone, electronic communication device, digital watch, visual or audio recording or listening device or any device with an on/off option, scratch paper, or any other unauthorized aid.

The only items allowed on your desk throughout the test session are: the test booklet, the answer sheet, pencils, erasers, your admission voucher, and photo identification. You may use the margins of the test booklet for any intermediate work you need to do to answer specific questions.

If you engage in any inappropriate conduct, you may be removed from the test site at any time during the test at the sole discretion of an administrator and you will receive no credit or refund of any kind.

There may be extra questions in the Japanese-Language Proficiency Test which do not count toward your score. These questions allow the Japan Foundation and Japan Educational Exchanges and Services to make test scores comparable across administrations and to determine how new questions function under actual test conditions.

11. Test Score Reporting

a. Determination of Pass or Fail

To pass, (1) the total score must be at or above the passing score (overall pass mark) and (2) the score for each section must be at or above the passing score for that section (sectional pass mark). If your score for one section is below the sectional pass mark, you will fail, no matter how high your total score might be. If you miss a section(s), no points will be given for the entire test, including the section(s) which you completed.

b. Online Test Results Announcement

Test results will be available on the JLPT website at https://www.jlpt.jp/e/ between the end of January and March 2024.

- Your registration number and passcode are required to check your test result online.
- You will not be able to see your test results online if you failed to correctly write a passcode at the time of registration.
- The online results will be available until the end of March 2024.

c. Certificate and Score Report

Examinees who complete the entire test will receive a test score report in March 2024, unless the JF finds, in its sole and absolute judgment, any irregularities in your test answers and resultant test scores, in which case the test will be invalidated.

A certificate of proficiency will be sent along with the test score report to those examinees who successfully pass the test. Certificates and score reports with typographical errors (i.e., name or date of birth) will be corrected and re-issued by the JF if they are reported within a year after the date of issue.

Results will be sent out using USPS first-class mail; AATJ will not be able to accommodate special delivery options. If your certificate is bent or creased during mailing, AATJ will not replace it.

Note: All test results are final and cannot be contested or re-graded.

12. Non-compliance or Irregularities at the Test Site

If you fail to comply with the rules set forth in the JLPT Rules, instructions communicated to you orally and/or in writing at the test administration, or if doubts are raised about the validity or legitimacy of your registration or your score, the proctor will bring such non-compliance or irregularities to the attention of the Administrator. The Test Administration may void or invalidate your test scores at any time if, in its sole and absolute discretion, it determines that there is reason to question its validity or legitimacy due to circumstances within or beyond your control.

Your test score will be invalidated if:

- 1. you are found to have taken the test in someone else's place, or to have engaged someone to take the test on your behalf.
- 2. your identity could not be verified due to the use of a fraudulent ID or other such reason;
- 3. you have provided or received answers for the test or have used a dictionary, textbook, reference book, crib sheet, mobile device or anything written on your desk or personal items prior to the test;
- 4. you share the test contents and answers, photos of the test papers and/or answer sheets, or audio content of the listening test via the Internet or any other means of communication with any third party, and vice versa;
- 5. you refuse to follow instructions;
- 6. you remove the test paper and/or answer sheets from the test site;
- 7. you take photos of the test booklet and/or answer sheets and/or disclose to any other party the contents or answers of test papers or the audio content of the listening test via the Internet or any other means of communication:
- 8. you have disturbed other examinees in any way:
- 9. your mobile device or watch alarm sounds, vibrates or otherwise disturbs other examinees during the test;
- 10. you cooperate with someone committing infraction (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6) or (7); or
- 11. you engage, or cause another person to engage, in any other misconduct associated with the registration procedures or test-taking.

13. Invalidation After the Test

If the JF determines that you committed any of the misconduct listed in Paragraph 12 or there are any other reasons to believe that a misconduct has occurred in connection with your test taking (including, without limitation, unusual or irregular answer patterns, inconsistent performance, or any other irregularities), the JF may invalidate or cancel your test scores, decline to issue any certification or score report, or prohibit you from taking any future JLPT. Upon receipt of an inquiry from any third party about your JLPT results, the JF may inform the third party that your test results are invalid or cancelled.

Except as provided in the JLPT Rules, you agree that you will not have any claims against the JF, and that the JF will not be responsible for any claims or damages resulting from or arising out of your participation in the JLPT including, without limitation, the JF's refusal to issue any test scores or certification, the JF's invalidation or cancellation of your test score or certification for any reason. You further agree and accept that the above rules are reasonable to maintain the integrity and reputation of the JLPT; and have agreed not to seek any claims against the JF or any other party associated with the administration of the JLPT.

14. Special Testing Accommodations

A registrant who requires special assistance due to physical impairments or learning disabilities is required to submit a Special Testing Accommodation Request Form with their test registration form by September 4 (Mon), 2023. No late requests will be accepted, and no arrangements will be made unless the Request Form is submitted by the deadline.

15. Program Change

All aspects of the JLPT are subject to change at the sole discretion of the AATJ and the JF.

16. Test Delay / Test Cancellation Policy

The Administrator of each test site, in consultation with AATJ, has the authority to delay or cancel the test in the event of a natural disaster or state of emergency. In the event that the test is cancelled, the test will not be postponed, but all examinees may receive a refund of the test fee only (no compensation will be given for travel-related expenses). A $10 administration fee will be deducted from the Test fee. The cancellation announcement will be posted at the test site as well as on the AATJ website at http://www.aatj.org.

The start time may be delayed if there is a disruption to public transportation due to bad weather and/or other causes and if it is determined that a certain number (about 30%) of examinees will be able to reach the venue by delaying the time. Even if the start time of the test is delayed, the delayed test will be conducted on the same date unless it is cancelled altogether.

If it is determined that the test may not be conducted during the same day as a result of delaying the start time, the test will not be conducted. The test will be deemed to have been cancelled and the examinees will receive a refund of the test fee only. A $10 administration fee will be deducted from the test fee.

If the test is delayed or cancelled, the Administrator responsible for the test site will notify the examinees in a manner that he or she deems to be most appropriate under the circumstances.

17. Limitation of Liability

You agree that your sole remedy for breach of these rules or any other cause of action arising from or related to your taking the JLPT, including but not limited tort causes of actions, shall be limited by the actual amount of the fees that you paid to the AATJ for registration for the JLPT. In no event shall the JF, the AATJ, the Administrator, or any of their officers, directors, employees, attorneys, agents or subcontractors be liable to you, or to anyone making a claim by or through you, for any claim arising from or related to your taking the JLPT, including claims related to these JLPT Rules and their application, regardless of the form of action or theory of recovery, for: (a) any indirect, special, exemplary, consequential, incidental or punitive damages, even if the possibility of such damages is known; (b) lost profits, lost revenue, lost business expectancy, benefit of bargain damages, business interruption losses or loss of data; (c) injunctive relief; or (d) direct damages of any kind that exceed the amount of the fees for registration that you paid.

To pass, (1) the total score must be at or above the passing score (overall pass mark) and (2) the score for each section must be at or above the passing score for that section (sectional pass mark). If the score for one scoring section is below the sectional pass mark, the examinee fails, no matter how high the total score might be. Furthermore, if there are sections which an examinee does not sit for, no points will be given for the entire test, including any sections which the examinee completes. A failing mark will be given to the examinee.

Scoring sections of Levels N1, N2 and N3 and Levels N4 and N5 are different. Overall pass marks and sectional pass marks for each level are shown in the table below.

Level	Total	Total Score Scores by Scoring Section

The reference information is provided as a guide for the examinees' future Japanese study, and is NOT intended to determine pass or fail.

Also, ④a percentile rank is indicated on the Certificate of Result and Scores of examinees who passed the test overseas (excluding those who were exempt from the Listening section), showing the percentage of examinees with a score lower than yours in the six latest tests, including the one you took.

*Your reference information is located on the back of the Certificate of Result and Scores.

(2) About Special Testing Accommodations

If you want to be provided for Special Testing Accommodations because of a disease, a personal injury, a physical disability or other impairments, please ask your local host institution for a "Request Form for Special Testing Accommodations" and submit the completed Request Form together with your Application Form before the deadline set by your local host institution. Please make sure to check the box in the upper right corner on your Application Form. If the information provided on the Request Form is not sufficient, applicants may be requested to submit a medical certificate or other such documentations. As preparation takes time, late requests may not be acceptable.

2. What to Bring on Test Day

You may only bring the Test Voucher, writing utensils (medium-soft <No.2 or HB> blacklead pencils and a plastic eraser) and photo identification such as a passport, driver's license, or other official identification specified by the local host institution. You will not be allowed to take the test if you forget to bring your photo identification to the test site.

3. Misconduct

Your action or attempted action will be considered misconduct if:

- ① your mobile phone or watch alarm sounds or vibrates during the test;
- 2 you provide others with answers; obtain answers from other examinees; use a dictionary, textbook, reference book, crib sheet, earphone, or mobile phone; write answers in advance on your desk or writing equipment;
- ③ you are found to have taken the test in someone else's place, or to have engaged someone to take the test on your behalf, or your identity could not be verified due to the use of a false ID or other such reason;
- 4 you refuse to follow the proctor's instructions;
- (5) you take the test papers and/or answer sheets outside the test center with you; take photos of the test papers and/or answer sheets; or take the contents of the test papers and/or answer sheets outside the test center by copying them or recording them;
- 6 you disturb other examinees in any way;
- 7 you share the test contents and answers, photos of the test papers and/or answer sheets, or audio content of the listening test via the Internet or any other means of communication with any third party, and vice versa (including misconduct after the test);
- you cooperate with someone committing misconduct ②, ③, ⑤, ⑥ and/or ⑦.

If you commit any kind of misconduct during the test, the proctor will order you to stop the test and leave the test center. You will not be able to take the rest of the test. If you commit any of these types of misconduct or if the Japan Foundation determines for any reason that there are questions about the propriety of your score, the Japan Foundation has the right to re-administer the test, invalidate your test results (including those from past tests), refuse to notify you of your test result, and ban you from taking future Japanese-Language Proficiency Tests. If there is an inquiry about your performance from a company, school, organization or other entity when your past test results have been invalidated, the Japan Foundation will notify the corresponding company, school, organization or other entity that your results are invalid.

The Japan Foundation will not be responsible for any damages suffered by you the examinee nor any other type of claim made as a result of re-administering the test, not being notified of your score, having your score invalidated, or being banned from ever taking the test again.

4. Test Results

(1) Certificates

All examinees will be issued a "Certificate of Result and Scores" through their local host institution at which they took the test by early March 2024. Those examinees who successfully pass each level will also be issued a "Certificate of Japanese-Language Proficiency." If you have not been issued your certificate by the end of March, please contact your local host institution. Please note that the COVID-19 pandemic might cause long delays in processing the issue for a certificate.

Please direct all inquiries about notification of test results (including how they are delivered) to the local host institution where you took the test, instead of the Japan Foundation. Neither the Japan Foundation nor the local host institutions will be able to respond to any inquiries regarding test scores.

"Certificate of Result and Scores" and "Certificate of Japanese-Language Proficiency" with errors (eg. Name, date of birth) will be corrected and re-issued only if they are reported within a year from the test date. Request for correction due to the change of your name caused after the test date will NOT be accepted. Examinee should contact local host institution and present following documents.

- ① Test Voucher or Application Form B
- ② Photo identification used for the application of the test
- ③ Original "Certificate of Result and Scores" and "Certificate of Japanese-Language Proficiency" (if issued)

Please note that names can only be indicated in English characters due to technical limitation.

(2) Online Test Results Announcement

Test results will be available on the JLPT website at https://www.jlpt.jp/e/ in the end of January 2024. Your registration number and passcode are required to check your test result online, so be sure to keep your copy of Application Form C (For the applicant). Please note that you will not be able to see your test result online if you have failed to correctly write an 8-digit passcode (numbers only) on the application form.

(3) Reissuance of "Certificate of Result and Scores"

The Japan Foundation can reissue a "Certificate of Result and Scores," which is an official certificate for submission to schools or companies. If you wish to receive copies of this certificate, please check the application procedure on the JLPT website at https://www.jlpt.jp/e/ and contact your local host institution or the Japan Foundation Center for Japanese-Language Testing.

(4) Genuineness of Test Results

In cases when the Immigration Services Agency of Japan, a university or other educational institution, or business enterprise makes an inquiry, with some proper reason, on whether an examinee's "Certificate of Japanese-Language Proficiency" or "Certificate of Result and Scores" is genuine, the Japan Foundation may confirm validity and report the results to the inquirer.

(5) Notification of the Test Scores to Universities and Other Institutions in Japan

Japan Educational Exchanges and Services will send the test results of the JLPT directly to the universities or other schools upon their request after the results are notified to examinees, for examinees who take the JLPT in cities outside of Japan where the "Examination for Japanese University Admission for International Students (EJU)" is not yet introduced.

In the case of examinees who are taking the JLPT overseas and who are also applying to enter a Japanese Language Institute which is a member of the Association for the Promotion of Japanese Language Education or Japanese Language School Association(JaLSA), the Japan Foundation will send the examinee's score via the aforementioned associations to a designated institute upon request.
